

The Donau-Auen National Park

protects on approx. 93 km² one of the last ecologically intact Wetland Areas in Europe. The scenic beauty and sensual splendour of this water forest almost magically attracts many people.

The NationalparkCampLobau

was established by the City of Vienna as a special institution for visitors, especially for people who prefer to sleep in fresh air under the starry sky. It invites to enjoy the precious treasure of a National Park that extends into the urban settlements.

The NPO UmweltBildungAustria,

an independent association, is ordered by the City of Vienna to offer colourful and attractive outdoor programmes for Viennese people as well as to realize evocative projects for European students and teachers, themed YES! Young European Solidarity.

TINA Vienna,

the leading European competence centre for transport infrastructure planning, provides the financial basis for the DanubeTeens project.

ARGE Donauländer,

an association of all 23 Danube regions aims at collaborating for a zone of peace and sustainable development along the river Danube.

TRANSPORT STRATEGIES

The River Danube

connects 23 European regions; so it suggests itself as a symbol of bringing people together.

The DanubeTeens project

takes exactly up this message and intends to encourage young people from the Danube regions to take a close look at trans-European topics relating to the Danube area.

The 2nd DanubeTeensCamp takes place in the NationalparkCamp Lobau in June 2006. Student delegations and teachers from all Danube regions are invited to take part in this challenging youth camp at the edge of the Donau-Auen National Park. This great outdoor event makes use of the relaxed atmosphere close to the pulse of nature for an open-minded exchange of ideas and experiences.

The Student Participants

should be aged from 14 to 17, quite fluent in English, curious, open-minded, communicative and interested in political respectively ecological issues.

The Service Package

includes the welcome at the railway station, transfers in Vienna, personal attendance by experienced educators, full board and a guided programme with daily events.
